

EDAN Lincs Newsletter – February 2022

Happy New Year to you!
Thank you for all the lovely donations and gifts received for our Christmas appeal! We have managed to give gifts to more families not just in refuges but in the outreach also! Thank you for helping us to make it happen!

Domestic abuse through technology?

How safe are you? What is tech abuse? Some of the most common examples, like harassment or sending threats via text/call/email, asking to see who you are talking to or stopping you from contacting certain people, tracking you through your phone or asking you to send photos to show them where you are, pressuring you to send intimate images or threatening to distribute them online. During 16 Days of Action Kathryn Brookfield, researcher at University of Nottingham put together this video for us.

View from one of our Children & Young Person's (CYP) Worker

"The CYP team continue to work extremely hard to deliver essential support to children and young people that have been impacted by domestic abuse. We are currently supporting 62 CYPs across the team. We were incredibly humbled, and grateful, for the generosity and kindness shown by businesses, organisations and the community over the festive period. Your donations ensured we could give every child we support Christmas Presents. It was an absolute delight for us to be given the job of Santa for a few weeks, to see the joy and happiness on the CYPs faces as they received their gifts. A huge thank you for your past, present and continued support!"
